The Wrap Shack started rolling 'em fat in the summer of 2004, when three friends--Josie Bolane, Jason Luchini and Lindsay Hurlbut--decided Big Sky would be a better place with a restaurant that serves fast, fresh, healthy and affordable food. We pride ourselves on making our sauces and salsas from scratch and using only the freshest ingredients in everything we make. Our aim is to provide the community with a menu that is completely original, different and exciting. Thanks for choosing us and let us know if we can make your experience any more enjoyable. Cheers!

P.S. Check out our great selection of Wrap Shack T-shirts, sweatshirts and koozies for sale.
